The Early Learning Center Celebrates the Week of the Young Child

Cortlandt Manor, NY, April 16, 2010 -- Kathleen Scanlon, from The John C. Hart Memorial Library in Shrub Oak, came to The Early Learning Center at FIELDHOME on April 15th to read to the children in celebration of the Week of the Young Child. Ms. Scanlon entertained the children with enthusiastic storytelling that included puppets, fingerplay and stretching. The children also enjoyed many other special activities throughout the week in celebration of the Week of the Young Child.

The Week of the Young Child is sponsored by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) and is held each year to honor young children and thank teachers and all those who make a difference in young children's lives. The WOYC 2010 theme is Early Years Are Learning Years.

The Early Learning Center is part of FIELDHOME and offers child care to children in the community from six weeks to five years old. The Center recently ran a trike-a-thon for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and raised over $1,400.00. They are holding a hop-a-thon on April 21st at The Seabury at FIELDHOME to raise money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

In addition to the child care program at The Early Learning Center, the FIELDHOME campus also includes a rehabilitation treatment center and a skilled nursing facility at Field Home–Holy Comforter and offers luxury assisted living and memory support at The Seabury at FIELDHOME. FIELDHOME is currently celebrating 130 years of caring for the community.
